

As a L5 student in the ICT program, specializing in Networking, Software Development and Multimedia production. you have already learned that modern technologies depend on both hardware and software working together. Using your advanced understanding, critically analyze and Explain why Physics remains essential at this level and how its principles support your field.