

Home work

Modul: citizenship

Level:4ALL

1.human trafficking is one of the hazards in the worldwide where it affects both economically, socially and politically factors and it is common and done in different ways, for example, organ trafficking, forced labor, forced marriage, rape among others. imagine if your one of the people who works in institution like education and you were given a task of showing how one can fight against human trafficking in line with respecting human rights in at least seven (7) points. /10marks

2.Explain with examples the principles of human rights /10marks.,